

Summer College Programs for High School Students

Adelphi University (Garden City, NY)

<http://precollege.adelphi.edu> Phone: 516-877-3046

Summer programs at Adelphi University range from one to three weeks in length during the month of July 2011. Students interested in Acting, Business, Dance, Nursing, and Theatre Management are eligible to earn up to three college credits while living on or off campus.

Deadline: Contact Adelphi University for deadline.

Alfred University (Alfred, NY)

<http://www.alfred.edu/summer> Phone: 607-871-2045

Junior and senior students will be eligible to apply for summer courses at Alfred University. Topics of study include, but are not limited to math, science, the humanities, fine and performing arts, business, technology and athletics. Sessions are offered in June and July 2011. Additionally, Alfred offers separate programs for students interested in the field of robotics and computer engineering.

Deadline: April 15, 2011

American Academy of Dramatic Arts (New York, NY & Los Angeles, CA)

<http://www.aada.edu> Phone: NY 1-800-463-8990 CA 1-800-222-2867

The summer programs offered by both the New York and Los Angeles campuses of the AADA are an exceptional way for students to live life as an actor in either of these great cities! The programs offer students the flexibility to choose four weeks of intestine conservatory training or to focus completely on one aspect of a career for two weeks. The Summer Program's goal is to allow students the opportunity to asses educational goals, learn skills, and choose a profession.

Deadline: June 1, 2011

ASSE International Student Exchange Program (Worldwide)

<http://www.asse.com> Phone: 1-800-333-3802 ext. 219

ASSE International Student Exchange Program is pleased to provide students with the opportunity to study abroad this summer to a large number of countries including: Germany, Spain, Great Britain, Switzerland, New Zealand, Argentina, Portugal, Slovakia, Turkey, Thailand, China, Mongolia, France, Holland, Italy, Australia, Mexico, Brazil, Czech Republic, South Africa, Japan, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, and Norway. Scholarships are available.

Deadline: Contact ASSE for deadline.

Barnard College (New York, NY)

<http://www.Barnard.edu/precollege> Phone: 212-854-8866 Contact: Office of Pre-College Programs

Barnard College is offering three summer programs in the following areas: Young Women's Leadership Institute (Open to young women, rising juniors and seniors), Writing in the City (Open to young men and women, rising juniors and seniors), and Architecture in the City (Open to young men and women, rising juniors and seniors). This is a great opportunity to explore an area that you are interested in or want to learn more about while exploring the great city of Manhattan!

Deadline: Contact Barnard College for deadline.

Barnard College and Oxbridge Academic Programs (New York, NY)

<http://www.oxbridgeprograms.com> Phone: 1-800-828-8349 or 212-854-5262 Contact: Dr. James Basker

Barnard College and Oxbridge Academic Programs offer summer courses in Barcelona, Cambridge, Montpellier, Oxford and Paris. Students may choose from over 100 different classes with a variety of subjects.

Deadline: Contact Oxbridge Academic Programs for deadline.

Baruch College: New York, NY

<http://baruch.cuny.edu/leadership> Phone: 646-312-4286

This exciting Summer High School Program in July 2011 is geared towards sophomore, junior and senior students interested in entrepreneurship, pre-law or pre-med. In addition to learning about the selected topic of study, students will have SAT prep on a daily basis. This program is intended to broaden student's subject knowledge, while also preparing them for college and the college application process.

Deadline: Contact Baruch to apply

Boston University (Boston, MA)

<http://bu.edu/summer/highschool> Phone: 617-353-5124

High school students entering their sophomore through senior years are eligible to participate in one of four summer programs offered at Boston University. The six-week High School Honors program is for students looking to earn up to eight college credits. Students will have the opportunity to participate in academic research in the Research Internship in Science and Engineering six-week program. The Summer Challenge two-week program allows students to explore a broad range of topics in the field of liberal arts. Science or writing may be studied in the Summer Preview one-week. Each course focuses on assisting students prepare for the college application process. Students will have the opportunity to live on campus and experience college life first hand.

Deadline: Contact BU for deadline.

Bryant University – PwC Accounting Careers (Smithfield, RI)

<http://www.Bryant.edu> Phone: 401-232-6100 Contact: Professor Folami

PricewaterhouseCooper and Bryant University have teamed up to offer high school students the opportunity to learn about and explore their career choices in the accounting field. This exciting Accounting Internship Program is free of charge and students only need to pay for their transportation. If you are interested in the accounting field, then you should consider attending this opportunity with one of the biggest names in the accounting field and Bryant University!

Deadline: March 1, 2011

Carnegie Mellon University (Pittsburgh, PA)

<http://www.cmu/enrollment/pre-college> Phone: 412-268-2082

Carnegie Mellon's Precollege Summer Program offers students the opportunity to participate in Fine Arts programs, including Architecture, Art, Drama, and Music. Students will also have the opportunity for Advanced Placement/Early Action information and participation as well as the National High School Game Academy.

Deadline: Contact CMU for deadline.

Columbia University (New York, NY)

<http://www.Columbia.edu/hs> Phone: 212-854-9889

Columbia University's Summer High School Programs offer programs in New York City, Barcelona, and the Middle East. These programs are renowned for their academic rigor, instructional excellence, and the unique opportunity they provide for highly motivated students to experience college life at a world-class university. Academic opportunities are available for viewing both on the Columbia University website and Summer Program brochure.

Deadline: Contact Columbia University for deadline.

Dowling College (Long Island City, NY)

<http://www.celestialvoyagers.com> Phone: 516-829-1525

Summer programs for high school students interested on Marine & Earth Science. Students will travel to Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands for a 10-day excursion exploring nature for a great first-hand experience.

Deadline: March 3rd, 2011

Emory University (Atlanta, GA)

<http://www.college.emory.edu/pre-college>

Emory's Pre-College credit and non-credit programs offer a wide variety of courses; Arts and Humanities, Pre-Professional, Science and Social Science. Students may choose from six-week credit courses or two-week non-credit courses. Students will have the opportunity to live on campus while exploring the city of Atlanta.

Deadline: Contact Emory for deadline.

Fashion Institute of Technology (New York, NY)

<http://www.fitnyc.edu/precollege>

FIT offers a wide variety of programs to all High School students interested in the fashion industry. Design, business, marketing and patternmaking are only a few of the courses offered.

Deadline: March 29, 2011

Fordham University (New York, NY)

<http://www.fordham.edu/summer> Phone: 718-817-4665

This pre-college summer program affords high school students going into their senior year the opportunity to prepare for college with a number of courses to choose from. Math, fine and performing arts, humanities and science are a few of the subjects offered. This four week summer program is for students willing to commute to any of Fordham's campuses: Lincoln Center in Manhattan, Rose Hill in the Bronx, or Westchester in West Harrison.

Deadline: June 3, 2011

Harvard University (Cambridge, MA)

<http://www.ssp.harvard.edu> Phone: 617-495-3192

Harvard College Prep Summer School offers high school students the opportunity to experience college life while attending classes in academic subject areas that interest you! You will have the opportunity to meet and make new friends from all over the world, prepare for college through various college visits & workshops, and have full access to some of Harvard's first rate facilities. Come join over 1000 high school students this summer for this fantastic opportunity.

Deadline: Contact Harvard University for deadline.

Ithaca College: Ithaca, NY

<http://www.ithaca.edu/summercollege> Phone: 607-274-3143

This pre-college program avails high school students the option of applying for a three-week or one-week course for college credit. Math, science, photography, psychology, sociology and performing arts are just a few of the options. Information workshops on preparing for college and application essays are also available.

Deadline: May 1, 2011

New York University (New York, NY)

<http://www.nyu.edu/info/precollege/info> Phone: 212-998-2292

NYU's Precollege program is open to all high school juniors and seniors and offers students the opportunity to take up to two college-level courses at the Washington Square Campus. The program runs for six weeks and students get to live on campus! The program also offers an optional FREE writing course to help students increase their writing skills. Students will have the opportunity to see a Broadway show, make new friends, and will also get free college admissions information. Scholarships are available.

Deadline: Contact NYU for deadline.

Northfield Mount Hermon (Mount Hermon, MA)

<http://www.nmhschool.org> Phone: 413-498-3290

NMH is proud to present the 2011 Summer Session! High school students have the opportunity to participate in one of five summer programs:

College Prep, Middle School, English as a Second Language, Contemporary Dance, and New Zealand Summer Abroad.

This summer program offer students to use their summer to help build academic skills and prepare for college. Students learning together from different and diverse backgrounds ensures that everyone leaves with friends from all over the world.

This program has existed in various forms for over 100 years.

Deadline: Contact NMH for deadline.

OTIS College of Art and Design (Los Angeles, CA)

<http://otis.edu/soa> Phone: 1-800-527-6847

The College of Art and Design offers college preparatory programs for students interested in the fine arts during the month of July 2011.

Deadline: Contact OTIS for deadline.

Pratt Institute (New York, NY)

<http://www.pratt.edu/prostudies> Phone: 212-647-7199

Interested in Architecture? Studio Design? Media/Photography? Portfolio Development? Comic Books? Interior Design? Art History? If you are interested in one or more of these programs, then the Pratt Pre-College Program may be the program for you! High school students have the invaluable opportunity to sharpen portfolios, get a taste of college life, and earn up to four college credits. The program is offered at both the Brooklyn and Manhattan campuses.

Scholarships are available.

Deadline: Contact Pratt for deadline.

Pratt Institute (Brooklyn, NY and New York, NY)

<http://www.pratt.edu/prostudies> Phone: 718-636-3453

High School students above the age of sixteen have the opportunity to apply for various programs in the field of art: architecture; graphic, fashion and/or interior design; creative writing; jewelry/metal arts; and construction management are only a few of the courses available.

Deadline: April 1, 2011

Putney Excel (Amherst, MA; Oxford/Tuscany; Beijing, China; Madrid/Barcelona)

<http://goputney.com> Phone: 802-387-5000

Putney Excel offers programs in the United States, Europe and Asia. Given the location, students will have the amazing opportunity to explore the surrounding areas. In each country, courses will include historical trips to neighboring cities.

Courses in SAT prep, the humanities, culinary arts, fashion, fine arts, foreign languages and religion are just a few examples students may choose from. Students in 9th-12th grades are eligible; programs range from three to six weeks.

Deadline: Contact Putney Excel for deadline.

Roswell Park Cancer Institute (Buffalo, NY)

<http://www.roswellpark.org/summer> Phone: 716-845-8134

Roswell Park Cancer Institute is sponsoring the 59th Annual Summer Research Program for high school and college students. This program will allow students to prepare for undergraduate studies in science, experience basic science research at a leading cancer research institute, conduct a research project, and learn from leading professionals in the science field.

Deadline: February 15, 2011

Stony Brook SUNY- Robert W. Greene Summer Institute: Stony Brook, NY

<http://www.stonybrook.edu/hsji> Phone: 631-632-7403

This is an exciting opportunity for High School students interested in the career of Journalism. It is a free program where students are able to learn about broadcast, print and photography journalism. This one week program (July 24 — July 30, 2011) allows students the opportunity to live on Stony Brook's campus.

Deadline: April 1, 2011

Summer Study Programs

<http://www.bestsummerever.com>

The following colleges and universities offer a wide variety of summer programs and activities:

Penn State University (University Park, PA)

The Sorbonne (Paris, France)

The University of Colorado at Boulder (Boulder, CO)

The University of Vermont (Burlington, VT)

The University of the Arts (Philadelphia, PA)

<http://cs.uarts.edu/precollege> Phone: 1-800-616-6430

Students will have the opportunity to live in city of Philadelphia while studying the various types of performing arts. Summer Art and Media, Summer Dance, Summer Jazz and Summer Theater.

Deadline: Contact the University of the Arts for deadline.

SEE YOUR GUIDANCE COUNSELOR FOR MORE INFORMATION!

AMITYVILLE UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT