

Amityville back in Division IV, watch out

September 3, 2011 by ADAM RONIS / adam.ronis@newsday.com

Amityville returns to Suffolk Division IV after a one-year absence. The Warriors played in Division III last season and enter the season as the No. 1 seed. In two of the last three seasons the Warriors played in Division IV, they won county championships.

The Warriors are in good position to win it again with two of the best players on the Island in running back Da'rell Hatcher and wide receiver Willie White.

Glenn is coming off a Long Island championship and the best record in program history at 12-0. The Knights are 32-2 the last three seasons and appeared in three consecutive championship game. Babylon is a perennial contender with 18 consecutive years in the semifinals, including 14 of the last 15.

Mount Sinai always finds a way to be in the mix with six straight semifinal appearances and nine out of the last 10.

1. AMITYVILLE (4-5)

Coach: Chris Taylor (seventh season).

KEY PLAYERS: Da'rell Hatcher RB/LB (6-0, 200), Sr.; Willie White WR/DB (5-10, 170), Sr.; Adonis Green OL/DL (5-10, 230), SR.; Jordan Myers OL/DL (6-2, 290), Sr.; Justin Childs OL/DL (6-3, 270), Sr.; Daniel Parks OL/DL (5-10, 215), Sr.

ABOUT THE WARRIORS: The passing game will be improved with sophomore QB Sean Walters in his second season as starter. The Warriors have size and speed. Hatcher rushed for 1,150 yards last season and White (520 rushing yards, 442 receiving yards and six INTs) is a versatile athlete.
