

WANTED=HEARTS

Hearts wanted for transplants. It must be able to work and be fully functional. The heart is the power plant of the body it makes everything function and keeps you alive. It is also called a pump to pump the blood around the body. It is located on the left side of your chest right above the left side of your rib cage. You can have a heart attack, cardiac arrest, and diabetes. It works with your whole body to keep you alive and keep you living.

By: Jonathan Schmidt